1. FOR ROME:

You may inform the Foreign Ministry that the Department has no objection to the Italian Embassy in Tripoli transmitting information to Rome via our channels as long as Italian communication facilities are not in operation. You should point out that Embassy Tripoli communication burden is heavy and working with skeleton staff. Italian messages can only be sent after transmission high precedence USG traffic. You should request messages be kept as brief as possible.

2. FOR TRIPOLI:

Italian Foreign Ministry reports communications with Italian Embassy cut and has asked permission to transmit via our channels. Request you notify Italian Embassy they may transmit within conditions set forth para 1.
